When a terminal diagnosis arrives, how you walk together becomes everything.

The end of a marriage to terminal illness is not a single tragic event—it is a long, profound season. It arrives without permission, dismantling future plans and replacing them with treatment schedules, clinical jargon, and the agonizing weight of anticipatory grief.

Written with deep emotional clarity and unflinching honesty, The Long Goodbye is a grounded survival blueprint for both partners. It reveals how to navigate the shock of diagnosis, protect marital tenderness under relentless physical decline, and honor the sacred bond you built across a lifetime.

INSIDE THIS ESSENTIAL 4-PHASE COMPANION:

- The First 48 Hours: Navigating shock, medical reality, and telling loved ones without panic.
- The Marriage Under Stress: Preserving emotional intimacy when physical roles fundamentally invert.
- Crucial Legal & Dignity Conversations: Navigating paperwork, palliative care, and peaceful hospice choices.
- The Sacred Letting Go: Finding peace in the quiet moments, surviving final goodbyes, and rebuilding life.
