

THE CARE COLLECTION • BOOK 4

When memory fades, love remains the final anchor.

Watching the person you built a lifetime with slowly slip behind the veil of dementia is the longest, quietest goodbye a spouse will ever endure. You are married, yet living in ambiguous grief.

When They Forget Your Name provides the gentle, clinical, and soul-deep protocol for spouses navigating Alzheimer's and memory decline. Learn how to love who they are today without losing yourself to exhaustion, despair, or guilt.

INSIDE THIS COMPASSIONATE BLUEPRINT:

- The Ambiguous Loss Protocol: Making peace with the changes in your lifelong partner.
- De-escalating Agitation: Scripts and soothing rituals that bypass cognitive friction.
- Preserving Dignity: Practical daily care frameworks that honor your partner's humanity.
- The Caregiver's Emotional Lifeline: How to survive the heartbreak and care for yourself.
